

Hello, My name is Tommy

My Family and I are off on a new adventure soon because you see my Daddy is a very import person.

My daddy is a solider which means sometimes we have to move house.

My mammy said we need to pack up all of my toys today and that made me feel a bit sad.

I really like my toys but we have a plan to keep them all safe.

Me and my mammy are going to get my backpack and fill it with a few of my smallest favourite toys.

This way I can keep my favourite toys with me whilst the other toys get safely packed into boxes ready for their new adventure

Would you like to help me?
Great lets get started.

Draw your own favourite toys in the boxes below and place them onto my toy check list .

Remember to place your toy into your bag as you place your drawings onto the list

Remember to have an adult help you cut out our beautiful pictures

Well done You did it!
